CRITERIA FOR GRADUATE SCHOLARS AWARD

PURPOSE

The Graduate Scholars Award (GSA) has been established to enhance the geographical diversity of applicants to the Graduate School of the University of Charleston, South Carolina. In the belief that the education of people is not confined to the classroom, the university encourages individuals from diverse backgrounds to meet and exchange ideas and experiences in the collegiate environment.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

New and Incoming Students:

1. Be an admitted degree-seeking graduate applicant at the College of Charleston.

2. Have a cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0 = A.

3. Plan to enroll full-time, at least 6 hours of graduate coursework during the semester.

NOTE: If an applicant does not meet criteria 2 and/or 3, a letter of support from the Program Director is required and the award amount will be reduced.

Continuing Students:
