CRITERIA FOR SOUTH CAROLINA GRADUATE AWARD

PURPOSE

The South Carolina Graduate Award (SCG) has been established to attract South Carolina residents with high scholastic aptitude to the Graduate School of the University of Charleston, South Carolina. In the belief that the education of people is not confined to the classroom, the University encourages individuals from diverse backgrounds to meet and exchange ideas and experiences in the collegiate environment.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

Applicant must:

1. Be an admitted, incoming degree-seeking graduate student at the College of Charleston.
2. Be eligible for in-state residency in South Carolina.
3. Have a cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.5 on a scale of 4.0 = A.
4. A minimum combined GRE score of 300 or GMAT 600.
5. Enroll full-time, at least 6 hours of graduate coursework during the fall and spring semesters.
6. Submit a letter of support from his or her graduate program director.

APPLICATION DEADLINE AND NOTIFICATION

Fall – April 1

SCG applications will be considered on a competitive basis. Students who have been awarded the SCG will be notified by the Graduate School.

RESTRICTIONS

1. Continuing students are not eligible for the SCG.
2. Students enrolled in less than 6 hours are not eligible for the SCG.

NOTES

1. The SCG funding schedule is tied to the academic year with the fall being the first award term.
2. The maximum amount which can be awarded is $2,500 per major semester, or a total of $5,000.